A YEAR OF JUBILEE!

2003 is our year of Jubilee!

As we travel, encourage and minister in scores of countries around the world, we see the hundreds of thousands of “fruit” that the Holy Spirit has produced through the Fellowship. Whether it be in Mexico, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Belgium, or wherever, God is truly moving by His Spirit. We are in the last days! And the harvest is absolutely “white unto harvest.” Millions of households are understanding that the only hope in this world is Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit has quickened them to “see and experience the light”.

FIFTY years ago on the last Friday and Saturday of December 1952, FGBMFI was born by a vision. It was the time of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Demos, my father, came to one of the greatest crisis of his life.

Richard and Vangie Shakarian

His own strength was exhausted. His dream was dying. Many urged him to stop the little chapter he had started. This little beginning of the FGBMFI seemed to have failed. Now would Saturday morning be the last FGBMFI morning? But praying in the Spirit after midnight that Friday night, Dad knelt on the large Oriental carpet in the living room. He emptied his soul before God. Yes, he was caught between the God-given desire that men should have a Fellowship together and the seeming futility of continuing. As he prayed, he noticed he seemed to be above his body and could see far beyond with crystal clarity. He saw "The Vision". America, then all the men of the nations in chains of bondage, and then the second half of the vision: the joy, the breaking of bondages of isolation. And, the praise to Christ from millions in every nation!

There is still time to call us immediately to reserve your space at our JUBILEE CELEBRATION. December 28, Saturday morning, we will have two great meetings at the original Clifton's Cafeteria. The First will be 7 am-9am, and the second will be 9am-11am.

But let's look ahead to the most exciting World Convention in our history....THE 50TH YEAR GOLDEN JUBILEE WORLD CONVENTION. It will be held in Anaheim, California August 5 - 9, 2003 at the Anaheim Marriott Hotel. Contact us right away, so you can be a part of not only history, but as we begin our second half-century of a life-changing tradition!

The arena in Korea was peaceful. I felt very comfortable and confident. The harder I practiced, the more God's Holy Spirit impressed a peace upon me. I felt the excitement mounting. Every time I moved the TV cameras were on me and the newspaper cameras began to flash. The excitement caused vibrations in the air. I began to pray for the "peace of God, which passes all understanding". I felt the presence of God, telling me to "Take it easy, you'll make it!"

At that moment, I made black belt history on Monday, September 10, 2001 at the World TaeKwonDo Federation Headquarters, (Kukkiwon), in Seoul, Korea. No Westerner has ever reached this plateau. After testing I was officially certified the "highest ranked Black Belt (9th Degree) foreigner (Non-Korean) in the world."

I think back to my upbringing. At an early age, my mother divorced my father. It was during those years of being raised in a broken home that I turned to God for the "fatherly image" that a young boy needs at that time in his life. It was at the age of three that I experienced my first miracle, one of many that have been continually happening in my life. I accidentally fell on a sharp knife and stabbed myself in the left eye. The doctors thought that I would be blind. The wound took 26 stitches and the scar is still visible today. After several weeks, the doctors removed the bandage and patch that I wore over the eye and to their amazement, the eye was completely restored.

At the age of about five years old, some neighborhood bullies beat up, kicked and hit my brother and me with sticks. It was a bloody sight. But my mother told me, "You have to fight your own battles." Right then and there, I determined to never be beaten up ever again. I saw a television program called, "You Asked For It!" I'll never forget it. A little boy wrote into the program and asked if he could see a man break a house brick with his bare hands. I saw this man walk out. He had a big steel anvil and a big house brick. He squared off at this and "boom" it broke. I said, "Wow! I'd like to do that someday!"

When I was 10 years old, my mother remarried. My new dad was nice to my younger brother and me and he had a great concern about our spiritual growth. It was during these years that the things of God really began to make sense to me. But like most young boys and teenagers, I did not apply the teachings to my life. I had the "head knowledge" but I did not allow it to fall into my heart until much later in my life. However, God installed a special "alarm system" in my heart.

Due to a foolish and reckless accident, I was shot in the side with a .22 caliber rifle. The bullet went through my spleen, grazed my lung, missed my heart by a fraction of an inch, broke a back rib and spun around in my stomach a few times. I actually thought that I was going to die. Knowing God, I prayed, "Dear God, don't let me die!" God answered my prayer.

I volunteered for Air Force duty to the Orient, specifically to train in some kind of martial art. There were no commercial schools like we now see available in most cities. No one at that time even dared to make a profession out of teaching Judo or Karate. In 1961, I received orders for duty at Osan Air Force Base in Korea. Once there, I immediately began training in TaeKwonDo. I went through instructors like most people go through old newspapers. I wore them out. I couldn't get enough.

I had just returned from Korea, extremely excited about my new 2nd Degree Black Belt. A few friends and I were having a good time diving off a bridge near my home on a river in Michigan, diving head first from 18 feet into 12-1/2 feet of water. The next day my friends called me up and "dared" me to dive off head first. I dove head first without realizing the dam up the river was closed, causing the river to drop eight feet.

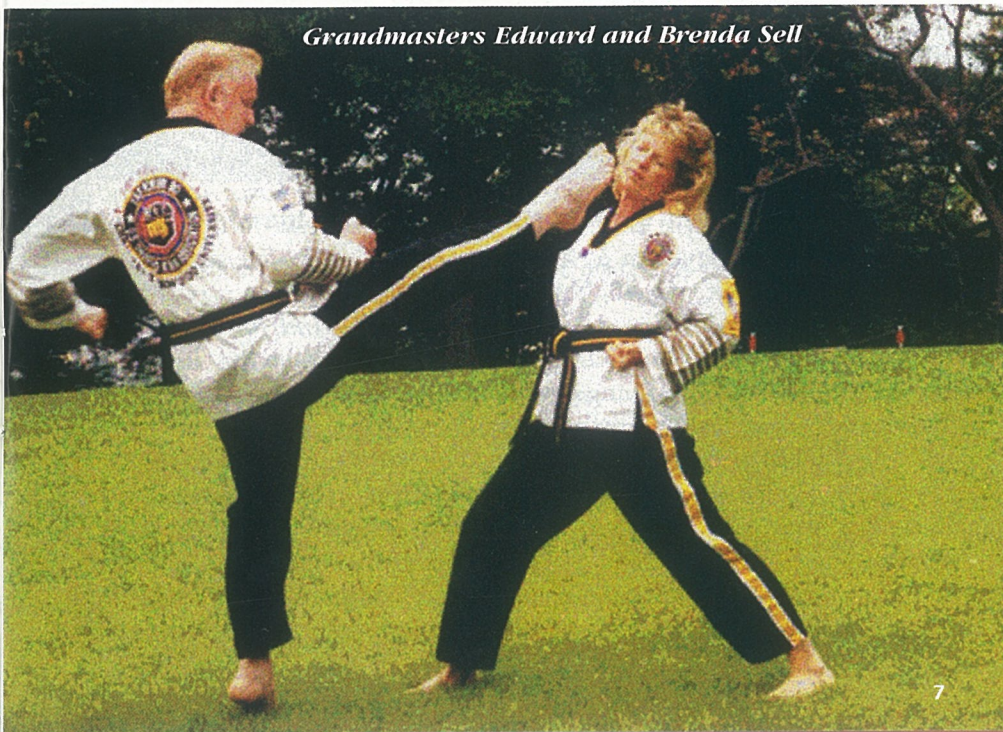

I hit the bottom so hard that I saw two bright lights in my eyes, and a piercing sound in my ears. I know now that I was near death. When I finally regained consciousness, I was lying on a hospital bed in traction. I remember the doctor telling me that I will never walk again because I had a broken neck! After hearing those words it was as if a shock wave was sent through my body. I cried out, "God! Where are you? This can't happen to me!"

I prayed, "Oh Heavenly Father, thou are the creator of the universe I and the Almighty Physician. There is nothing that is impossible for you. You know all my thoughts and deeds. You know what my lifetime ambition is. I ask that you get me up out of this bed and help me accomplish the goal of becoming the highest ranked Black Belt any American ever received. I promise that I will search out the plan that You have for me and I will serve You and some day tell boys and girls, men and women about the miraculous power of prayer and that it does work; and that there is a living God called Jesus Christ."

Grandmasters Edward and Brenda Sell

Within ten days after I said that prayer, I walked out of that hospital. The doctors said that I would never pass the physical examination for re-enlistment in the Air Force, and that I would never be able to practice TaeKwonDo again. Within 30 days from saying that prayer, I was back in the U.S. Air Force. Within 60 days after saying that prayer, I was back in Korea at the same Air Force Base training for my lifetime goal.

Within 5 years after the accident, I received a most coveted award within the TaeKwonDo Black Belt ranks, the 4th Degree Black Belt never before awarded to anyone outside of the Korean Nationality; not just the highest ranked American, but an international record, the highest ranked “Non-Oriental in the World”. That was 34 years ago. Today, I’m a 9th Degree Black Belt, the highest ranking in TaeKwonDo.

Today, I am telling thousands of people this story and giving my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ the Glory for allowing me the privilege of being His spokesman. God has shown me a source of power and a peace of mind that passes all human understanding that I wish to share around the world. It’s the Holy Spirit.

Grandmaster Edward B. Sell’s U.S. Chung Do Kwan Association has produced, trained and certified: 350,000 students, over 5,000 Black Belts, 5,000 instructors and 150 Masters. SUCCESS IS NEVER ENDING; FAILURE IS NEVER FINAL

Bert Lotilla, Philippines

My story is far from the typical rags-to-riches tale for success beckoned early at an amazing pace that I never really knew what failure meant, much less how to deal with it until it came.

At twenty two, after one year at the Philippine Airlines Flying School and two years as Co-Pilot, I became the youngest airline captain of the country. Two years later, in Cebu City, I met Kate, a flight stewardess who had just planned in for her new assignment. I could vividly recall that as soon as I saw her from a distance, I told myself, "that lady shall be my wife". Six months later we got married.

Bert Lotilla and International President Richard Shkarian, during the 2002 World Convention.

Years later, I organized Filipinas Orient Airways and later joined Sterling Airways, Denmark's largest charter airlines where I had the opportunity to fly to 52 points in Europe. When Sterling Philippine Airways was established (a sister company), I was appointed as DC-8 Chief Pilot.

At the same time, I decided to venture into real estate and established a construction company, a business I had always dreamed to pursue. Our professional handling of the budding enterprise generated a lot of enthusiastic response from our clients that it did not take us long to see our company finances flourish well beyond my expectations. In 1978 my company, H.B. Lotilla Construction Co., Inc. had more than 1,000 employees under our payroll.

Up until then I had never experienced failure. At 35, I was in the eyes of the world, a tremendous success. Business not only was a priority - it became an obsession. Little was it known to anyone however that in spite of all the luxury I had, I was a very unhappy man. I didn't understand why?

Years later, tragedy struck me from all directions. First, my older brother who was very dear to me died of cancer. Almost simultaneously, my wife Kate learned of my affair which hurt and embittered her so much that she left for the U.S. Three months later, she came back to announce she wanted a divorce. That was the final blow. I loved Kate so much I could not ignore her threat nor give up on her. "Only a miracle can save our marriage", she said.

My problems did not stop there. They continued to mount to a point when my business was on the verge of bankruptcy due to global economic recession. I, who never wavered in the face of pressures suddenly ran out of solution and was now a nervous wreck left with no alternatives, options or remedies.

This never-say-die businessman was now worn tense and thin in spirit and body by an alarmingly grim scenario that found me one Sunday morning in 1981 totally hopeless and resigned. I decided to end it all in one sweep, bid this life goodbye as I outlined the specifics on my plan to go out to the countryside where I could find a place I could ram my car against.

SUCCESS IS NEVER ENDING; FAILURE IS NEVER FINAL

I began to prepare my suicide note. Then with crushed spirit I cried out, "Lord Jesus, please take over. I can't handle it anymore". Suddenly an inexplicable peace overwhelmed my whole being that I was able to pray for the first time in many years. I forgot about the countryside trip and slept peacefully that night. The great turning point in my life began one evening while Kate and I were in Samar where we went to finally decide on our worsening relationship. In the middle of the night I heard a voice instructing me to cut my vacation and go back to Manila.

Following my arrival, two young ladies invited me to attend a charismatic meeting at the Makati Intercontinental Hotel. It was a literal shock seeing people with hands raised in worship, some even crying. I thought these people must be out of their minds and their problems were worse than mine. Then two church elders who took notice of me as a first-timer approached me with a hug saying, "I love you brother". I reacted, "Oh No! They are not only crazy, some of them are homosexuals".

When the preaching began, I was so uncomfortable because the preacher was speaking about my sinful life, as if the preacher knew so much about me. The ladies who invited me must have tipped the speaker and here I was set-up. Suddenly, to drive home a truth, the speaker pointed his finger at me and asked, "What good will it be for a man if he gains the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? or what can a man give in exchange for his soul?" The word of God was so powerful and so alive. I felt my heart breaking and in an instant I saw myself a rotten and a guilty sinner.

Overcome with conviction, I was the first one to rise when the altar call was given and there I cried unashamedly like a baby. What a day to discover that God loves me even though I'm a sinner. That day, I knew the greatest miracle took place in my life. I made Jesus Christ the Lord of my life. I became a brand new person inside. Thus began my new life in Christ.

The days that followed saw me glued to the Bible. I was so hungry for the word of God and I became addicted to it. At the office, my changed life was a big wonder to the staff. One year later I received the baptism of the Holy Spirit which filled me with power and boldness to share my new-found faith to everyone, everywhere at every opportunity. But the greatest joy came when my wife Kate also surrendered her life to the Lord Jesus Christ six months later. The result was quite predictable. The love of God drew us closer to one another in deep, abiding commitment. The turbulent relationship has found an anchor on the solid rock.

Having made Jesus Christ as number ONE in my life, the blessing poured out in full circle.

Our construction business bounced back. Clients with long forgotten accounts called up to pay. Even previously cancelled contracts were revived. I also received a juicy offer to fly again with a foreign airlines, but I declined so I could give more time to the Lord's work.

My office staff, now all born again Christians, are privy to all the miracles of the Lord in my life. I vividly recall in December of 1983, I gathered all the staff with much prayer and declared to the

The Bert Lotilla family in front of their home in the Philippines.

Lord that this company belonged to Him and that we are only His faithful stewards. We went on with the re-engineering, and with the help of the Holy Spirit, we were able to sharpen the focus of our vision. We were able to set structure and system for a long range plan. I've experienced many financial miracles in my companies.

Of course problems still come, but I'm no longer worried. My secret is to hold on to the promises of God, especially Philippians 4: 6-7 and Proverbs 4:20-22. I refuse to focus on problems. I look to God through His son Jesus Christ as the source of my healing and deliverance and my EI Shaddi, the great one who supplies all of my needs. In times when trials put my faith to the test, I ask the Lord to guard my heart so that I will not fall into sin. No amount of verses could do me any good if my heart is not right with God.

The greatest miracle I have received is my Salvation in Christ and I will never trade it for anything in this world. I have been at the peak of success long enough to be able to conclude that "WITHOUT CHRIST, THERE IS NOTHING AT THE TOP"!

He has been the FGBMFI National President for over 13 years. He is also FGBMFI Vice President for Asia Pacific and International Director for the Philippines. ♦

SEARCHING FOR THE TRUTH!

George Segersbol, Texas

Born into a very traditional Catholic family in Peru, I was a very sick child with asthma. I started wondering about death and the life hereafter at a very young age. At 19 years old, I was studying business at the university and working at a bank. According to the world, I was a very successful young man. I had everything that I needed.

But one day when I was on a date in a disco club, I suddenly heard this voice, "Is this all that you want for your life?" I took my date home. I went to my room and I started crying. I did not know what was going on. After that, I started searching for the truth. I didn't know where to begin, so I started studying different religions: Bahai, Buddhism, New Age, Meditation, whatever I could get my hands into.

However, as I got deeper and deeper in those studies, I felt like the joy of living was diminishing. I became very depressed because I had not found the truth yet. I even believed in reincarnation. I would read the Bible, but I would interpret it in MY own way!

A friend of mine invited me to this very humble church just to talk to me about salvation and the Lord Jesus. I didn't want to hear about those things. But one day, I finally said, "Okay, I will go. I will attend your meeting. But this is going to be the first and only time I will attend. After that, don't bother me ever again." The preacher started talking about Jesus, "Many of us know who He is, but we really have not met Him personally. We do not have that relationship with Him.” I liked what he said. Then he made an altar call. I went forward and knelt down. I told the preacher, “I accept the Lord Jesus, but I do not want to be a part of your religion!” He told me, “There is no religion. This is just a relationship between you and God.”

As I was kneeling down, I said the sinner’s prayer. I felt a real peace come inside of me. The smell of flowers was throughout the entire room. I could feel the presence of the Lord in front of me for the first time ever. Something heavy was lifted off of me. When I got up, I wanted to hug everybody in that room.

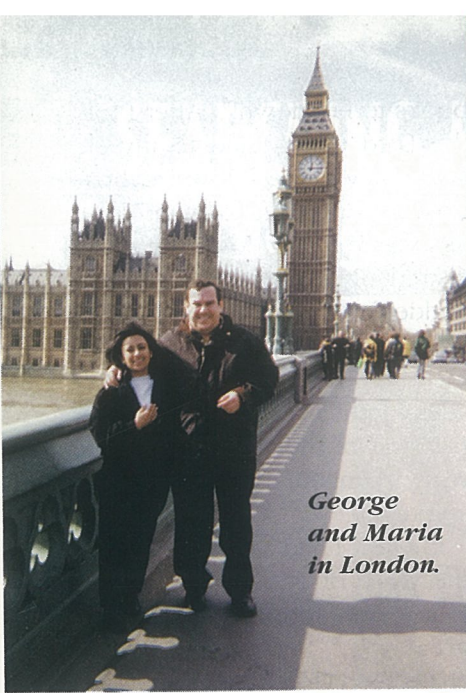

Something happened to me that day! It changed me forever!

After that the Lord started talking to me directly through the Bible. However, I still had some New Age books. But I started feeling peace immediately. I felt the joy. But because I had studied so much New Age, I had some problems changing immediately. I asked the Lord to please clarify what was true; and what wasn’t. I had those books in two piles. The Lord spoke to my heart, telling me to get rid of those New Age books. I said, “Lord, if this is Your true will, I want those books to fall down!” After I told the Lord that, I said to myself, “How silly of me. How are those books going to fall down?” But as I was walking down the stairs, I suddenly heard this big noise. Suddenly, all those books were on the floor! The Holy Spirit led me to a trash bin in the street where I put all of the books. After I got rid of those books, my life really changed! I started growing spiritually.

In 1985, I had a dream. I heard the voice of the Lord telling me to go to California. “But I have a great job,” I protested. So I challenged God, “Lord, if you can confirm this, I would appreciate it.” The very next day, a friend in California called me. I had not talked to him in a long, long time. He urged me, “Come to the States. There is plenty of work.” I went to the American Embassy to get my visa; the same day the silverware that I had for sale was sold, so I received the money for my travel also on the same day. At that time, hardly anyone was getting a visa, unless you were extremely rich. I got my visa quickly. God had plans for me. As I came to the States, a job was offered to me.

Even though I had been a

in London.*

Christian for many years, I had never believed too much in tithing. In January, 1995, all I had in my bank account was $100. I told the Lord, "I am going to start a business; and You are going to be my partner. I will make a pact with you. Every month I am going to give ten percent of my income for the Lord to help people."

As I started giving, I saw God's favor. God started talking to my heart that I had to start giving and serving. I read in Malachi about tithing. He said that He would bless us beyond measure.

My cousin loaned me $3,000 to get my blind and drapery business started. I started giving, every month, faithfully.

I was driving the car one day, and I felt that I had to go to a housing subdivision that was being built. I saw a man and gave him my sales talk about blinds. He said, "Today is your lucky day. Come see me on Monday." He was the president of a big construction company in Houston. God led me right to him on the job. On Monday, he made me sign a contract to put blinds in all of the houses that he built. At the time, I didn't even have an office.

I saw the hand of God opening doors. It was God's favor. I moved to a store and had five sales people working. Then we started our own blind-making factory. We have seen our business steadily grow and grow every year.

FGBMFI was the vehicle God used to mature me, spiritually. I have been faithful to the Fellowship. I've helped to start several chapters in Texas, as well as participating in many Fire Teams. I have seen a lot of Hispanic chapters coming up everywhere in the United States.

My wife had a dream about people in business suits who were thrown into a trash dumpster. The Lord showed me through the dream that those were the people who were not going to get saved unless I got involved with the Fellowship.

The Fellowship is a great place to get together with and know good people. The joy that produces and helps to change lives—that is the main thing at FGBMFI. The Holy Spirit makes all the difference in the world because we, by ourselves, cannot make it. We need God in our lives; and the power of God in you to have a victorious life.

George Segersbol is owner of Tejas Window Covering Co., Houston, Texas. He and his wife, Maria Elena, have been happily married for 12 years. He is also a FGBMFI International Director. He is very active in FIHNEC-USA.

George and Sara Duggan at the 2002 World Convention.

Weep for Joy!

George Duggan, South Carolina

Following my father's death as a teenager, in order to help support the family, I ventured to Charleston, South Carolina, where I took a course in shipbuilding at the National Youth Administration School in North Charleston for defense workers.

While working in the shipyard, I attended college and law school, graduating from law school in 1954 with a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Baltimore. I left the legal field for four years in 1956 and started a real estate investment business back in Charleston. In 1970, I went full-time into the real estate investment business.

Tommy Hicks, a healing evangelist, came to town. Howard Chatham, a friend of mine, asked me if I would like to go to a meeting and see some healing miracles. I agreed.

When I was about seven years old, a young person hit me across the back with a large stick and injured some vertebrates in my back. We were playing in a pile of leaves; and when I was hit, I could not get up right away. It was several months before I could run again without it hurting. As a teenager, I had many backaches. Then I was 27 and from time to time I had serious pain in my back. The night we went to the meeting, I had worked in the shipyard all day and my back was tired and hurting. As we walked about six blocks to the meeting, each time we crossed a street, I stepped down from the curb easy to keep my back from hurting even more.

Tommy told the people that whoever needed healing for anything to get in a line. He was going to pray for them and God was going to heal them. I was not familiar with this kind of meeting, but as soon as he said those words about healing, and without thinking about it, I found myself in that healing line. When I got about ten feet from where he was praying, it felt like electricity was in the air. It passed through my body and the pain left. I was totally healed at that moment, and my back is still healed to this day.

But that was not all that happened to me! The next morning I found that I was changed person. I was different than I had ever been before. I had not thought about reading a Bible before, but that next morning I wanted a Bible and I wanted to read it more than anything else. This was an experience from the Lord that no one can take away from me. More than anything else, I know it was my salvation experience. I always had attended church regularly but it was more from a sense of duty. Now I wanted to KNOW the Lord.

I asked Jesus to come into my heart and take over my life with a personal relationship with the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

In 1968 the Holy Spirit spoke to me in a loud voice, "There are many people in your church (Catholic) that are not saved." I stopped and closed my eyes and said, "Lord, how could that be possible? With all the colleges, universities, and institutions of higher learning that are within the auspices of the church, how could that be possible?" Gradually, I started to understand as the Holy Spirit taught me and showed me about salvation.

In 1973, I had not seen Howard and Grace Chatham for 15 years. They had not met my wife Sara or children, so we went to see them for a couple of days. Howard said, "You know, Duggan, since we last saw you, both Grace and I have been baptized in the Holy Spirit." I questioned, "Chatham, what is that? I have never heard of that." He told me that when I got back to Charleston, to look up the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International. He assured me, "They will tell you what it is." When I came back, I went to their August meeting.

Businessmen were telling how God had spoken to them! In our church I had never met anyone whom the Lord had spoken to. I was so happy that for the next three months all I could do was to sit through these weekly prayer breakfasts and literally WEEP FOR JOY!

I was nominated for vice president of the chapter. I said, "I can't be an officer because I do not have the baptism in the Holy Spirit." The chapter president said, "We will take care of that. Come over and sit in this chair." They prayed for me to receive the baptism in the Holy Spirit. Some two weeks later, at home beside my bed, the evidence came forth. I started speaking a foreign language that I did not know or understand. In December of 1973, I had received the baptism in the Holy Spirit; and Sara had received it in January of 1974. I can now stand up and speak in front of people with great ease.

I started to be involved in evangelism through the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship

International. The leadership in this organization consisted of very strong Christians who told the members to stay in their own churches. In 1973, between Christmas and New Year's Day, the Lord spoke to me very clearly at the cathedral parish. He said, "I want you to stay in your church for I have a work for you to do there!"

After suffering from gall stone attacks for about a year, the Lord woke me up at 4 a.m. and told me, "Wake up your wife and have her pray for you." I woke Sara and told her the Lord said He would heal me if she prayed for me. Sara came and prayed a simple prayer with her hand on me. She said, "Be healed in Jesus' name." The pain left and I was healed of the gallstone condition. God has used Sara and me to pray for people; and God has healed them.

In the early seventies an evangelist came to preach at the Charleston Holiday Inn. I wanted to give that man a hundred dollars and I didn't care what he did with it. I told my wife and we decided to give the money. I only had $88, so I gave all that I had. Within a few months a man came up to me and offered me exactly

$100,000.00 more for a certain property than I had invested in the property. I was sure that the Holy Spirit was teaching me about tithing and giving!

I am totally committed to the Fire Teams one hundred percent. No evangelistic effort has had the impact in Honduras that FGBMFI men did in May 2000. It goes to the very heart of the vision. As we keep inspiring the FGBMFI leaders to send out their men, they will see what Demos envisioned, ordinary men have the same impact as great evangelists!

We are touching top leaders, whether it be in Honduras, Nicaragua, the United Kingdom, El Salvador, or in the United States. The Lord opens the door to every high level of government office in the nations we visit.

Through salvation, we receive a measure of the Holy Spirit, but with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit we are filled with the Holy Spirit. We can all weep for joy!

George Duggan has been an International Director for FGBMFI since 1989. He and his wife Sara reside in Charleston, South Carolina, where he oversees his real estate investment business.

FROM PRISON TO WALKING WITH MY LORD

Stan Heward, Washington

As I sat in my prison cell I would wonder, where did I go wrong? What started me on this trail of heartache and pain? I knew the things I did were wrong, but why did I do them?

My life continued to go down hill. They say that when you hit bottom, all you can do is go up, but where is the bottom? I thought I had hit that a long time ago! While in jail, I thought about my unbelievable past.

God has allowed me to live through some pretty tough years, not only as a youngster but also as an adult. I'm not crying about my past or how hard it was, I'm just comparing it to the life I now have walking with my Lord. I'm just sorry that this change came so late in life. But then again it's quite possible that God has protected me and allowed me to live this hard type of life so that I can say I've seen both sides of the fence and I am able to help others because of it.

My life began to fall apart in junior high school. Home life was the first to fall apart. I can remember being afraid to go home, thinking I'd get another beating for something I had done wrong. These whippings and beatings were not easy to take. It got to where I was running away from home, more than I was at home. I soon decided that living on the street was the only thing to do. Being only about 13 years old, living on the street didn't work out too well.

My stealing got the better of me, so I started stealing cars to joy ride in. I didn't get caught for a while; and I thought I was doing great. Finally I did get caught. At that time I was sent to a youth center, then to a treatment center for kids that had no where to go. At that time in my young life, my dad and step mom had given up on me.

I didn't think that I needed help and didn't want to be told what to do, so I ran away from there, stole a car and made it all the way down to Newport, Oregon when the state police started chasing me. After about 10 miles, they fired three bullets into the car before I pulled over. God had to have been there because I could have been easily killed.

Shortly after that I was released to live with my mother and step dad in Portland, Oregon. Living at mom's went pretty good until they went on a two week vacation to southern California. Since they didn't have room for me in the car, they sent me to a church camp. That didn't go over very well with me, so just as I had always done, I ran away, stealing cars and what ever I could sell to eat. I had to sleep in the woods or cars that were left unlocked.

I now can see what a bitter hardened heart I had at that young age, and things weren't to get any better for a long time. My life was going down hill fast. A couple of years later I was arrested again for stealing cars and for selling hot car parts. I soon found out that along with easy money comes "HARD TIME" and that's just what the judge gave me: 4 years in the state prison in Salem, Oregon.

You can't even guess how I felt at age 20, going to prison. My new home for the next four years would have 40 foot walls with gun towers about every 150 feet or so. I lost my name and became a number, 28938. My cell block had four tiers of cells. I was on the fourth tier and could see past the catwalk and over the 40 foot wall to freedom. Day-after-day, I would lay there, watching freedom. This caused me to pull some real hard time. I soon found out that I had to get down on a lower tier so I couldn't see freedom. I then had to cut my mind off to the outside world to keep from going crazy.

I had visitors once in a while, but I had to soon stop them because it made doing time harder, because I was reminded once again of the outside. I soon became a hardened convict and blocked myself off from the outside world. I thought that if there truly was a hell, then this place was it. I've seen prisons on television that looked like ranch style houses, but let me assure you that the prison in Salem was the real thing.

I was to lose all of my good time for breaking the rules, so I had to do my four years completely. I was soon able to work my way up to a paid job and ended up making $1.25 a day and 10% of that was put in savings for when I was released.

I was about 24 when I was released and boy did I feel good. I had no where good to go, so I went back to my old stomping grounds, Vancouver, and rented a small room with the small savings that I had from prison. I found a job and things started looking up, but I soon started drinking. Between drinking and drugs, fighting and whatever else, I was again arrested and put in the Clark County jail.

I even thought of ending my life, because if this was all that life had to offer, then I didn't want it! I now believe that God had a plan for my life, so He prevented me from taking my own life.

Making the best move I've ever made, I moved to get away from the big city life of crime. It took about three months, but I was invited to church. I soon found everything I ever needed staring me right in the face! I was accepted by our Lord to walk by His side and at the same time, all the pain, suffering and heartache I'd been through the last 55 years, was lifted from me! My past was a living hell, and although I know I'm not in heaven yet, my life these last couple of years has been like heaven, compared to the hell I'd been living in for so many years.

I now have friends that were actually friends and a life that one could call a life. I've given my testimony in front of about 500 people. Quite frankly, I'm not a people person. God has me doing things I never thought I'd be doing. A couple months ago I had a couple of things pop up out of my past, things that weren't taken care of completely from my past, so I had to spend a little more time in jail. Any jail time is not easy, but having my God on my side sure helps. I believe that having God as our Father makes us His children; and us being His children gives Him the right to correct us once in a while. Some of us...more than others.

The last week I was in that jail paying for my past mistakes, I was able to help lead three young men to the Lord. It was so great and in that I thank and give God all the praise. Thanks be to God, I enjoy my new life with Him. OLD THINGS ARE PAST AWAY AND ALL THINGS ARE MADE NEW.

Now I love the Lord and every day I pray for Him to use me in any way for His glory. I truly believe that He wants me to use my past as a testimony as to our Lord's power and to tell about the changes He has made in my life. I love walking with my Lord and though I know there will be valleys to go through, I now have my God to lead me. THROUGH GOD ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE, LOOK WHAT HE HAS DONE FOR ME!

Men still cry, "What must I do to be saved?" The Bible provides a clear answer.

6 Steps to Salvation

1. ACKNOWLEDGE

"For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." – Romans 3:23

"God be merciful to me a sinner." – Luke 18:13

2. REPENT

"Except ye repent, you shall all likewise perish." – Luke 13:3

"Repent therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out." – Acts 3:19

3. CONFESS

"If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." – 1 John 1:9

"If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved." – Romans 10:9

4. FORSAKE

"Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD...for He will abundantly pardon." – Isaiah 55:7

5. BELIEVE

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." – John 3:16

"He that believes and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believes not shall be damned." – Mark 16:16

6. RECEIVE

"He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." – John 1:11-12

YOUR 3-STEP DIAGNOSIS FOR ETERNITY

(Check appropriate boxes)

STEP 1:

When I breathe my last, the next thing is:

- go to hell
- go to heaven.
- stay buried in the grave
- I have no idea.

STEP 2:

Here is what will probably happen:

- I'll spend eternity in hell.
- I'll spend eternity with Jesus in heaven.
- I'll be reincarnated as a "higher being"
- My relatives can visit my grave; I'll be there.
- I don't really know what will happen.

STEP 3: I'm sure because:

- I've led a sinful life
- I've trusted Jesus as my personal Savior
- I've gone to church all my life
- I support charities, even church
- I'm a good person.

TRES PASOS PARA DIAGNOSTICAR SU ETERNIDAD

(Marque el espacio apropiado)

1er PASO:

Cuando yo de mi ultimo aliento, lo que me acontecera proxicamente es:

- ire al infierno
- ire al cielo
- seguire enterrado en la tumba
- no tengo idea.

2do PASO:

Esto es lo que provablemente sucedera:

- pasare la eternidad en el infierno.
- pasare la eternidad con Jesus en el cielo.
- me re-encarnare como un ser "mas elevado".
- mis parientes podran visitarme en mi tumba; ahi estare.
- no se exactamente que sucedera.

Estoy seguro porque:

- lleve una vida pecaminosa
- yo he confiado en Jesus como mi salvador personal
- he asistido a la iglesia toda mi vida
- apoye a caridades y a la iglesia
- yo ayude a mi comunidad
- soy una buena persona
